

FUTURE LEADERS PROGRAMME FACT SHEET

The Future Leaders Programme (FLP) is a teacher development programme that provides school-based mentoring, workplace experience and professional development to pre-service teachers called Future Leaders. Future Leaders are also enrolled in a B.Ed. or PGCE degree through UNISA which they complete as part the programme.

The programme is run by the Global Teachers Institute (GTI), a non-profit organisation based in South Africa whose mission is to shift the way children are taught by transforming teacher education both in South Africa and globally.

PROGRAMME AIMS

- Produce thousands of new entrants into the teaching profession who are highly skilled, vibrant and reflective with a firm grasp of content, pedagogy and a commitment to student centred teaching, personal development and social transformation.
- Develop existing faculty so they can become better teachers and instructional leaders
- Raise a new generation of transformational school leaders
- Create a national network of schools and programme participants

DEMOGRAPHICS

Of our current Future Leaders enrolment:

- 87% are black South African citizens with the remainder from the rest of Africa
- 76% are female
- 52% in Gauteng, 23% in Western Cape, 14% in Limpopo and 11% in Kwazulu-Natal
- 67% in urban schools, 19% in peri-urban schools and 14% in rural schools

The programme has produced 8 graduates to date, all of whom have been placed in schools as teachers or within GTI Programmes.
